

India's an agrarian country and more than 60% of population depends on agriculture for their livelihood

India ranks second worldwide in farm economy as per Indian economy

MAJOR ROLE OF CROP PRODUCTION

This document clearly shows how agriculture contribution to country's GDP.

The data helps to analyze about major crop produced in india.

In this database we can analyze major crop that are cultivated in india.

INDIA'S AGRICULTURE CROP PRODUCTION ANALYSIS 1997-2021

Development of crop production in various scenario in india.

Condition of farmers during this young generations.

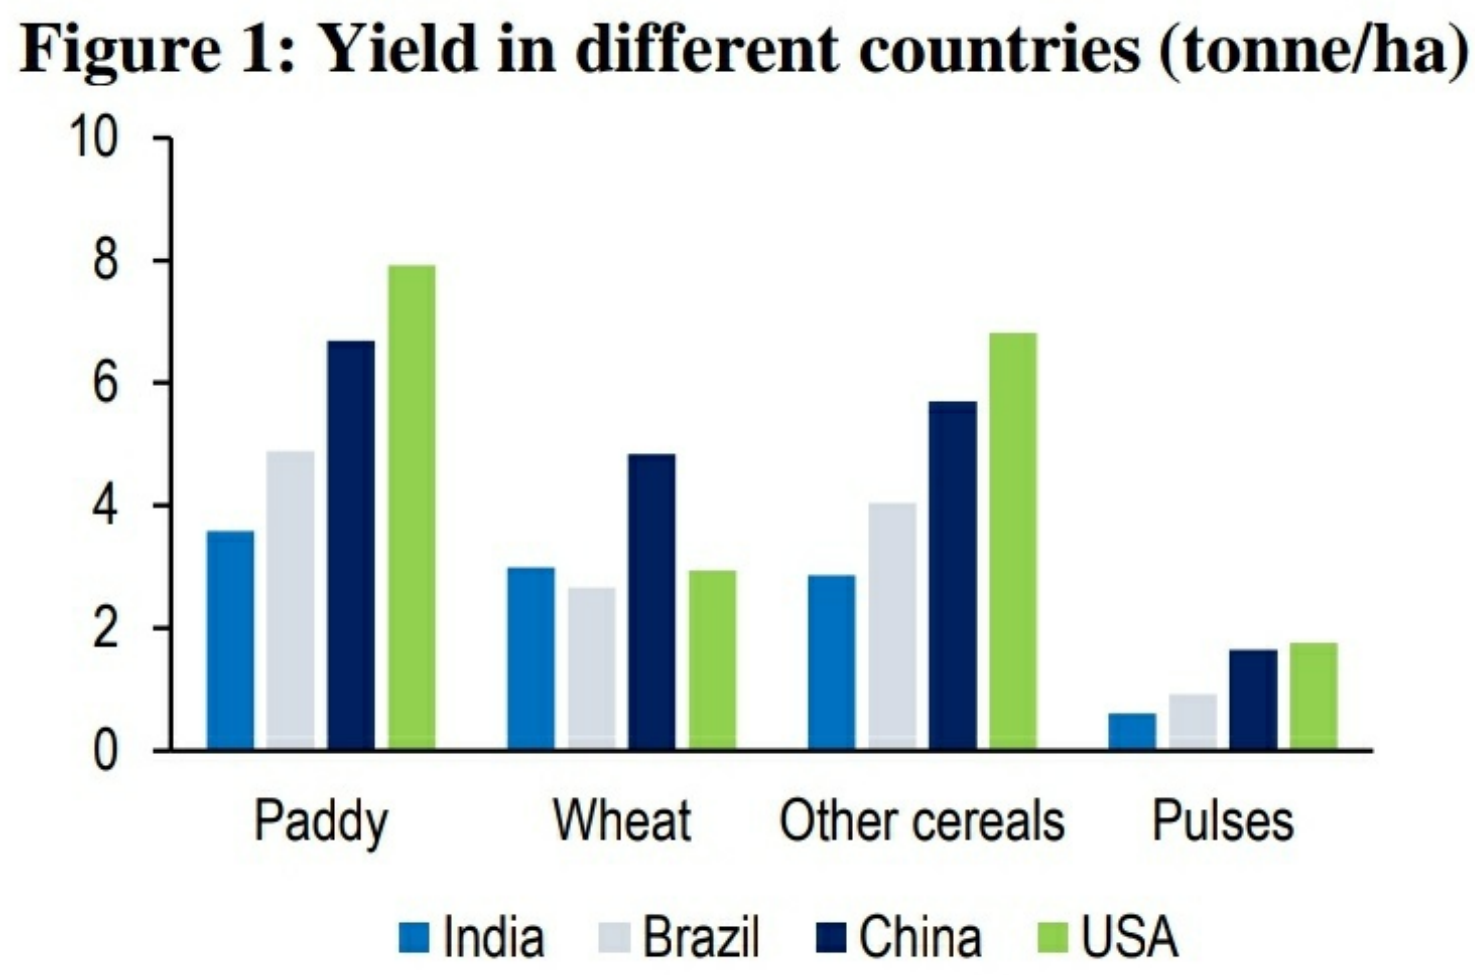

Physical factors affecting agriculture in india mainly include climate ,soil, terrain and topographical location.

Uncertain water right and supply with lack of infrastructure .

poverty and illiteracy of the farmers prevent them from making large scale capital investment and adopting scientific measure.

CURRENT AGRICLTURAL STATUS

DISADVANTAGES